APRIL, 2012

SPRING INTO THE PAST

10TH ANNUAL EVENT

May 5th and 6th will be the 10th year that the Bowne Township Historical (Society) Commission has participated in the "Spring Into the Past" museum tour.

Twenty two museums are on this year's tour. Each will have either special displays or demonstrations. Every time you visit one of these museums you will find new things that you have not seen before. New acquisitions or rotating displays makes each visit a new experience.

The museums are open from 11am to 5pm each day. Bowne will be open until 8pm on Saturday. The Methodist Church will have a dinner that night and we stay open to accommodate people who attend the dinner.

TIME TO PAY YOUR ANNUAL DUES!

It is that time of year again when you need to think about paying your annual dues.

Newsletters will not be mailed to those who have not paid their dues. E-mailed newsletters will be sent as usual.

We have not changed the amount we are charging and you can find information on amounts on the next page of this newsletter.

.New members welcome!!!!!

During these two days the admission to all of these museums is FREE!

You can pick up a brochure at the Museum, Alto Library, and various businesses in the area.

It is not possible to visit all of these museums over the two day event, but visit as many as you can.

Next year we will be adding Welch Historical Museum in Sunfield to our tour.

We hope to see you on the 5th or 6th of May.
